

Links to Helpful Resources

American Bar Association Resources for Students:

http://www.americanbar.org/portals/law_students.html

Advise to First-Year Law Students: <http://writ.news.findlaw.com/hilden/20050816.html>

CALI (The Center for Computer-Assisted Legal Instruction): <http://www.cali.org/>

How to Study Law: The Basics (Dr. Martha M. Peters):

<http://www.uiowa.edu/~aap001/BasicsofLawStudy.htm>

Law School – Materials for Success (Barbara Glessner Fines):

<http://law2.umkc.edu/faculty/profiles/glesnerfines/success-front.html>

St. Louis University School of Law, Outlining and Study Skills:

<http://wwwtest.slu.edu/x48902.xml>

Writing Law Examinations (John H. Langbien):

<http://lawschool.westlaw.com/shared/marketinfodisplay.asp?code=so&id=6&subpage=3>

Law School Academic Success Project: http://lawschoolasp.org/students/learning_opps.php

Tips on Communication and Speaking in Class: <http://www.law.harvard.edu/current/student-services/wellness/speaking-in-class.html>

How to Help Law Students Overcome Procrastination and Faulty Thinking (SALT LAW Blog):
<http://www.saltlaw.org/blog/2011/10/13/how-to-help-law-students-overcome-procrastination-and-faulty-thinking/>

Tips and advice on how to improve time management skills from law professors throughout the country (Harvard Law School): <http://www.law.harvard.edu/current/student-services/wellness/time-management.html>

Helpful Legal Writing Resources

A Brief Grammar for Lawyers (Donald A. Hughes, Jr.):
<http://users.law.capital.edu/dhughes/Content/Content2/Grammar/Grammar%20Main%20Page.htm>

The Bluebook: <https://www.legalbluebook.com/>

William Strunk, Jr., The Elements of Style: <http://www.bartleby.com/141/>

Legal Dictionary: <http://dictionary.law.com/Default.aspx?typed>

Dr. Grammar: <http://www.drgrammar.org/>

Bar Exam Resources

National Conference of Bar Examiners: <http://www.ncbex.org/>

Georgia Office of Bar Admissions: <https://www.gabaradmissions.org/home>

Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE): <http://www.ncbex.org/multistate-tests/mpre/>

American Bar Association Bar Admission Information:
http://www.americanbar.org/groups/legal_education/resources/bar_admissions.html